

1616

1543

73

1616

Galileo, the heretical astronomer unwittingly drew attention to Copernicus' book.

The scandalized Vatican
then placed the book on its index of prohibited books. There it remained until 1822.

Apr 23, 1616

William Shakespeare died
Also Cervantes died in Madrid

1616

Galileo was ordered by the church in Rome to stop supporting what had become known as the Copernican System.

When the book appeared, the church summoned him to answer a charge of heresy, even though their own censors had approved the work. Galileo was ordered to recant, to be cut off from the world in his villa at ARCEIRI. Visitors were forbidden. He became totally blind in the later years of his life

When Sahlele died 1642

Apr 23, 1616

(Gregorian Cal)

Cervantes died.

Apr 23, 1616 Julian Cal.

May 3, 1616 Gregorian

Shakespeare died

1616

Roman Catholic Church prohibits Galileo from continuing controversial scientific work.

In about 1995 the Catholic Church withdrew its excommunication of Galileo

1616

Roman Catholic Church prohibited Galileo from continuing controversial scientific work

1616

Invasion of China by MANCHU TATARS

Apr 23, 1616

= May 3, 1616
Gregorian

Julian Cal.

Shakespeare died. England had not changed to Gregorian yet

1616

China: Nurhachu proclaims himself emperor; official beginning of Manchu dynasty.

Japan: Iyeyasu died; Hidetada shogun.

1616

Chief Justice Sir Edward Coke (1552-1634) Repeatedly opposed James I's exaggerated claims of royal prerogative and disputed the king's right to legislate by proclamation
He was removed from office in 1616

1616

The Church denounced the work of Galileo (1564-1642)

Apr 23, 1616

Gregorian Cal.

Cervantes died

(= Apr 13, 1616)
Julian Cal

1616

Galileo was ordered by the church in Rome to stop supporting what had become known as the Copernican System.

When his book was published he had to answer the charge of heresy.